SHIRLEY BETTER, TO SEE BOSTON

Shirley Temple, bedimpled little queen of all Hollywood, has all but recovered from the illness that laid her low last Saturday.

So a solemn cavalcade of doctors, gathered at her bedside, announced after their noonday visit today.

They advised cutting short Shirley's tour, it was understood, but a press agent urged that it continue.

The doctors said it was "a touch of the grip" that spoiled the trip of the chubby, happy-hearted heroine of America's movie-going millions.

TO TOUR BOSTON

Tomorrow afternoon, according to plans, she will be up and will make an abbreviated tour of the historic spots about Boston on which she has set her heart.

Meanwhile, despite the heat and pressing humidity, a crowd kept endless vigil in the street below, shepherded still by police.

Many of the children who craned their necks continually skyward

Sagging Stocks In Mild Rally

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP) — Steels and motors struggled for a rally in the stock market late today after leading a slow retreat during the greater part of the session.

Modest buying support followed the announcement this week's steel mill operations would be at the rate of 39.8 per cent of capacity, a jump of 2.8 points.

Steel stocks almost cancelled forenoon losses running to more than $1 a share. The automotive group retrieved portions of morning losses.

Dealings were light.

PAUL DWYER

Trial Drama

As trial of Francis Carroll opened in South Paris in killing of Dr. James G. Littlefield, for which Paul Dwyer has been convicted, court fans waited for testimony of Barbara.

CARROLL IN GRIM JURY WATCH

By JOHN BRADFORD MAIN
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 1—Swiftly today the wheels of Maine justice spun following opening of the trial of former Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll, charged with the slaying of Dr. James G. Littlefield.

In a setting with grim business on the floor and a holiday aura in the balcony, six jurors, all male, were chosen before the noon recess from a special panel of 82 men and five women.

And grimly, the principal in the strangely-contrasted scene, husky, six-foot Francis M. Carroll, accused by the "boy friend" of his comely daughter, watched the selecting of the jury.

FLAMING YOUTH TRIAL

From the balcony above, young girls and boys—of high school age—leaned over the rail and crushed forward from rear seats.

They watched the drama below not tensely but more in the manner of carefree youngsters gathered in the high school gym to view a basketball game.

The boys wore slacks and bright, open-necked shirts.

The girls were hatless, in gay summer frocks and socks.

They smiled and chattered until the sheriff rapped for order.

Then they smiled and whispered, restraining giggles.

Many of them were schoolmates of Barbara Carroll, 17, daughter of the frowning man on trial and of Paul N. Dwyer, 18, who allegedly confessed the slaying of Dr. Littlefield and his wife and who is now serving a life sentence in State Prison.

DWYER'S FRIENDS

And many of them had, with schoolgirl ardor, sought the favor

Soviet Planes Bomb Japs

TOKYO, Aug. 1 (AP)—A Korean army communique reported today Soviet warplanes bombed Japanese positions heavily in the disputed area on the Siberian-Manchoukuoan frontier. It said five of the aircraft were shot down.

The communique said Soviet squadrons, flying in formation, including heavy bombers, thundered over Changkufeng bombing the contested hill and other points along the Korean boundary where Japanese were concentrated.

A war office announcement said defending airplanes brought down five Soviet crafts.

Japanese were said to have been without casualties.

The communique was couched in guarded phraseology but appeared to give the impression a major battle was developing in the disputed area.

NAME MONCIEWICZ

Mayor Tobin today appointed Frederick Monciewicz, attorney, as acting director of the Mayor's Survey Committee succeeding Richard Whitcomb, who resigned to enter the race for governor.

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug 1—Paul N. Dwyer, 18, life termer at State Prison and accuser of Francis Carroll, was brought to the courthouse from the prison during the noon recess. He will be a witness.

Barbara Carroll, 17, daughter of the defendant, had not appeared in court up to that time, nor had any of Carroll's relatives.

Boy Killed as Parents Tour

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Unaware that their five-year-old son had been killed by an automobile, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Clarke of Washington, Ct., were vacationing somewhere in New York or Vermont today while state police sought their whereabouts to inform them of the accident.

The Clarkes were believed headed for Lake Champlain by automobile.

A teletype message broadcast from state police headquarters here said the Clarkes were traveling in a sedan bearing Connecticut license plates W-R-925.

Their son, Peter, was struck by an automobile yesterday at Washington, Ct., and died last night in Torrington Hospital, the message said.

Name C. T. Cronan To State Bank Job

Attorney Charles T. Cronan, Framingham attorney and war veteran, was appointed today by State Bank Commissioner William P. Husband as director of the Division of Savings Banks in the state department.

The new appointee fills the $4500 vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles A. Bateman, Jr., last May.

Soviet Planes Bomb Japs

TOKYO, Aug. 1 (INS)—On the heels of Moscow's threat to "wipe Japan off the face of the earth," Soviet war planes today roared across the Siberian border and attacked Japanese military positions, according to Nipponese accounts. Five Soviet planes were shot down, it was officially reported.

In speedy revenge for double defeats suffered in yesterday's pitched battles, the Soviet aircraft bombed the Changkufeng border district and then, flying low, "strafed" the Japanese and Manchukuo defenses with machine guns.

Wheeling southward, said semi-official advices, the Red army planes then raided Japanese positions within Korean territory.

With border "incidents" now developing into open warfare, while Moscow and Tokyo continue to spurn each other's diplomatic protests, more Soviet troops were massing on the Siberian-Manchu-Korean frontiers.

SITUATION GRAVE

Eight hundred Red army soldiers, rushed up in 19 motor trucks, were concentrated at Fatashi, according to advices from Seoul, Korea.

A Soviet artillery force, equipped with powerful long-range guns, was reported gathering at Karanchin.

So serious has the situation grown overnight that developments in the undeclared Russo-Japanese war were carried direct to Emperor Hirohito today by the war minister, Lieutenant-General Seishiro Itagaki.

Following a conference with the navy and foreign ministers, General Itagaki rushed to the emperor's seaside resort, Hayama, with Prince Kohohito Kanin, chief of the army general staff.

CALLED BY STALIN

A spokesman for the war office declared Soviet troops who staged two counter-attacks last night, attempting to capture lost ground, had been repulsed in sharp fighting.

The Russians, said the spokesman, left 30 dead on the battlefield. This number was believed to be in addition to about 250 previous casualties.

The Japanese-Manchukuo forces also captured two Russian tanks, it was asserted.

From Moscow came a report that Joseph Stalin, under whose orders a drastic "purge" of suspected "spies and enemies" has been going on in Russia's Far Eastern land and sea forces, summoned his most intimate civil and military advisers to an extraordinary session in the Kremlin to wrestle with the crucial situation.

The U. S. S. R. was expected in diplomatic circles here to lodge a stern protest in Tokyo, demanding evacuation of the Japanese-Manchukuoan forces from the alleged Soviet territory and warning of drastic consequences should any new "invasion" be attempted.

A protest sent here by Japan was expected to be flatly turned down.

Americans Say Franco Fled Foes

AT A SPANISH BASE GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL BEHIND THE EBRO FRONT, Aug. 1 (AP)—The first Americans to return from the front after fighting in the government offensive across the Ebro river said today the International Brigade was taking "plenty of revenge" on the Insurgents under General Franco for its previous defeat in the same sector.

Volunteers who had been wounded slightly in action said they had won a smashing victory, driving deep into Insurgent territory before coming back across the river on stretchers.

They reported their companions still were carrying on the Government offensive in hills around Gandesa where they were broken up just four months ago by the Insurgent push from Aragon.

Three Americans were found in a ward in a monastery near the Mediterranean. They were: Leonard Lamb of New York, who had a clean rifle wound through his right side; Saul Wellman of New York, who had a shrapnel wound in his left leg, and Wilbert Wheeler of Seattle, who had blistered feet.

Among other members of the International Brigade there were a number of English and Canadians, including oderick MacKenzie of Sudbury, Ontario, with light machine-gun bullet wounds in one knee and one finger, and Don MacRae of Regina. One of MacRae's legs had been creasde by a bullet.

They said they crossed the Ebro just before daybreak last Thursday and marched forward easily with the Insurgent line dissolving before them.

Toll in Jamaica Wreck at Least 60

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 1 (AP) — Jamaica's worst railroad wreck probably will take a toll of at least 60 lives.

Fifty-two bodies have been recovered from the wreckage near Balaclava, 70 miles northwest of here, since Saturday. Seventy of the injured were taken to hospitals. All of the 300 passengers were natives.

Press Backs Duce in Tilt With Pope

ROME, Aug 1 (INS)—The Italian press, supporting Premier Mussolini in his controversy with Pope Pius over the "Aryanization" issue, today turned its editorial guns on Jews and demanded speedy measures to "safeguard our race."

The keynote of the Fascist journalistic mobilization behind Il Duce's racial program was struck by the newspaper Regima Fascista after Mussolini at Forli publicly characterized the Pope's allegation that he is imitating Adolf Hitler as "absurd." Regima Fascista assailed the Jews, saying:

"We do not understand the outcery of the Jews who have finally been recognized by Fascism as a race different from our own. Have they not always asserted this?"

PERILS FRIENDSHIP

Nearly all Italian papers printed leading articles on the topic of Italian "Aryanism" following the emergence into the open of the deep-seated doctrinal dispute between Mussolini and the Pope which for the first time in a decade menaces the relations between the Italian government and the Holy See.

Typical were articles such as one, entitled, "Race Civilization," in the Milan Corriere del Lasera and another, called, "Safeguarding the Race," in Gazetta del Popolo.

The common editorial argument employed was that in adopting a "race preservation" program, Italy is only doing what other countries, even the democracies such as America, Britain and France, have already done.

POPE MAY HIT BACK

That this thesis is not likely to impress the vatican was the consensus of competent diplomatic observers.

It was widely expected that the Pope would strike the next blow in his fight against what he has termed "exaggerated nationalism." The possibility was foreshadowed that his holiness might issue from his Castel Gandolfo "summer vatican" an encyclical dealing exhaustively with the whole question of "racial purification" and setting forth the views of the church in the matter.

Soldiers Kill 6 Ambushers In Holy Land

JERUSALEM, Aug. 1 (AP)—Military authorities reported today the death of six men in a band which launched an attack from ambush against trucks carrying soldiers.

Three soldiers were wounded, one of them seriously.

The soldiers pursued the band and in addition to killing the six men captured rifles and ammunition.

Casualties for July in Holy Land clashes totaled 199 killed and 473 wounded. Dead included 139 Arabs and 60 Jews, and wounded 303 Arabs and 170 Jews.

Haifa today was heavy with tension after a bomb was tossed into a cafe, but without inflicting injuries.

Earlier a bomb was thrown at a crowded bus descending Mt. Carmel Hill. It killed a Jewish woman and injured 11.

The dead and wounded for the month alone exceeded all losses in the sporadic disorders for the entire year of 1937.

Meanwhile trade is suffering, and a wave of destructive pessimism is sweeping the country.

Vast Red Army In Far East

LONDON, Aug. 1 (INS)—The latest authentic figures place the strength of Soviet Russia's Far Eastern Red ramy at 300,000 troops, the London Daily Express said today.

Of this number, according to an article in the newspaper, 70,000 troops are concentrated in the maritime provinces close to the area of the current border clashes with Japanese and Manchukuoan forces.

An estimated 1500 Soviet warplanes, it was added, are massed in the region, poised for instant action, while more than 100 submarines and torpedo boats are concentrated in the Pacific around the Soviet naval base at Vladivostok.

Fears Dixie Suicide

Dixie's Wife to Wait

NEW YORK, Aug. 1—"I'll be waiting when he gets out—Sing Sing, Atlanta, Alcatraz; wherever they send him I'll be waiting."

Dabbing her eyes with a tiny handkerchief, the brown-eyed 34-year-old wife of J. Richard "Dixie" Davis, made this declaration today of her still-burning love for the man who is expected to rock the city with his testimony against New York's $100,000,000 policy racket.

Hope Dare

"I've forgiven Hope Dare," she said in connection with the beautiful showgirl who was arrested with Davis in a Philadelphia apartment. "Dixie is only human."

Davis, lawyer and "brain trust" for the gang-slain "Dutch" Schulz, is expected to plead guilty today or tomorrow and turn state's evidence in District Attorney Tom Dewey's case against the policy ring and its political ringmasters.

Drowning Victim 'Very Much Alive'

While 2000 persons watched Medford police drag the Mystic river for the body of James Corsano, 65, of East Boston early today, Corsano called the police from his Cove street home that he was very much alive.

Corsano lost his balance and was thrown from a motorboat three hours earlier. The strong current carried him half a mile but he managed to reach shore.

New Pocket, Belt Styles

PARIS, Aug. 1 (AP)—Pockets and belts will give that different touch to the winter fashions.

Here's how:

Black leather belts for day dresses are decorated with slogans—"All or Nothing" or "To Love Is to Live," for instance—applied in Golden metal letters.

Red crocodile makes pockets for red wool frocks . . . Black moire silk fashioned in a bow ties pockets on black wool afternoon dresses . . . Pockets for black velvet day dresses are trimmed with ermine tails . . . Evening suits of petunia velvet have pockets of turquoise beads.

Also observed: Rhinestone figures in white velvet trimmings on black wool day dresses and in lace boleros for black lace evening dresses . . . Many narrow skirted evening dresses with high necks and long sleeves.

That Scarlett Derby

Kay Hepburn For Role?

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1—"Little Spitfire" Katharine Hepburn was again the choice of many handicappers in the "Scarlett O'Hara" sweepstakes today, after scratching of the odds-on, bookmakers' favorite, Norma Shearer.

Wise money, in and out of movieland, was never really backing Miss Shearer, anyhow, as probable lead player in the screen version of "Gone With the Wind."

The Tallulah Bankhead, Marion Hopkins and Margaret Sullavan supporters all shouted "I told you so" in resounding chorus when Norma announced she'd bow to her public and reject the proffered role.

NOT SURPRISED

Close students of Hollywood form-sheets had the last word today for La Hepburn, with Marion Hopkins definitely in the running.

To nobody at all, apparently, was Miss Shearer's bow-out a surprise.

Nor were informed circles amazed in the least today to hear that Producer David Selznick was making it a wide-open competition once more, with new entries welcome and no old ones barred.

GOOD PUBLICITY

Prospect of fresh discussion of "who'd make a good Scarlett O'Hara" and why was seen as manna from Heaven for studio press agents.

They've been harassed these many months for fear U. S. movie goers might forget "Gone With the Wind" and "Scarlett," too, long before appearance of the picture.

Apparently unassailed today was Clark Gable's nomination for the "Rhett Butler" role.

The thousands and thousands of letters the Selznick studio supposedly received objecting to Norma Shearer as "Scarlett" almost all contained a paragraph or two saying what a swell "Rhett Butler" Gable would be, if only he were given a made-to-order leading lady.

PLENTY OF ROOM

So Mr. Selznick and his collaborators dutifully told the world again today that there was plenty of room on the tote board and still time enough for any likely fillies to be entered in the race.

A Selznick statement said:

"We will immediately begin a new search for an unknown to play the role of Scarlett O'Hara. We may not find her, but we will send out talent scouts once more."

Selznick believes he'll have a new star after it's all over. He's so convinced of this that the thought gave him a movie idea. He called it "A Star Is Born."

Bachelor Slain; Scan Love Notes

ALGONAC, Mich., Aug. 1 (AP)—The love letters and art works of Augustus W. Roil, 45-year-old bachelor and gentleman farmer found slain yesterday, were scrutinized by state police in an attempt to solve his killing.

Roil, a man of extensive property holdings formerly an Algonac church vestryman, was fatally injured by blows over the head with a hoe handle. The body was found in a chicken house on Roil's five-acre country place.

Trooper Melvin Will, who found a suitcase containing letters from women written in response to Roil's advertisement with a matrimonial agency, said every letter would be investigated to determine whether a motive for killing could be found therein.

Several oil paintings by Roil, an amateur artist, were examined by the police. Beneath a painting of a lovely brunet was the inscription, "my only books were woman's looks and folly's all they taught me."

A semi-nude was inscribed:

"If I speak to thee in friendship's name, thou thinkest I speak too coldly. If I mention love's devoted flame, thou sayest I speak too boldly."

May Yet Decide 'Shorts' Battle

The battle of the "Shorts" may yet be settled this season.

Miss Betty McDevitt, secretary of the Savin Hill tennis team, declared today they would be delighted to play the Billings Field team later this season—but on their home court at Savin Hill.

The Savin Hill girls stuck to their decision not to play their scheduled match at Billings Field, Dorchester, when Park Commissioner William P. Long ruled that shorts could not be worn by the girl players at the latter field.

.RNO'S EX WEDS

MANHASSET, N. Y., Aug. 1 (INS)—Lois Long, a writer and former wife of Cartoonist Peter Arno, was honeymooning today with Donaldson B. Thorburn. They were married at a quiet ceremony here last night.

Film Star Sues 'Tarzan' Mate

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1 (INS)—Because he allegedly dropped her—with a couple of stiff pokes—Vera Steadman, silent screen star, intends to drop Martin Padway as a husband.

In a divorce complaint today the actress asserted that before Padway, son of a wealthy Beverly Hills family, left home last April he gave her a sound beating. Padway also was alleged to have been "sullen and sulky."

Scarlett?

ROLE AGAIN OPEN — With Norma Shearer rejecting role of Scarlett in "Gone With the Wind," scramble of stars beginning for this plum of moviedom sees (top to bottom) Margaret Sullavan, Tallulah Bankhead and Katharine Hepburn again in the running.

Gatelee Calls Solons 'Monkeys'

By JOHN W. ENGLISH
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

WORCESTER, Aug. 1—Bitterly assailing legislators for "playing politics while jobless go hungdy," President John F. Gatelee of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor told convention delegates here today:

"It's time our organization convinced those monkeys at the State House we mean business."

Gatelee urged a state building program to provide better housing for criminals and mental patients.

"WORSE THAN DOGS"

"We'll never solve the problem of public delinquency while we treat our convicts like wild beasts," he said.

"A dog gets better treatment than a criminal, because we give a dog a house to live and a place to sleep.

"Insane patients are sleeping in corridors in our hospitals.

"Construction of the buildings that are needed to modernize our work to thousands."

public institutions would give

$30,000 COULD MARCH

President Gatelee said 30,000 representatives of union labor could beassembled on Boston Common for a march on the State House.

"But I do not recommend that course of action," he said. "It wouldn't be smart and it wouldn't be funny.

"This question of what action ought to be taken is for this convention to decide."

Gatelee's addres was the first on the five-day program of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor's 53rd annual conveitno.

Morethan 300 delegates were assembled when he took the platform.

WAIT LODGE'S TALK

Awaited as a highlight of the afternoon program was the scheduled platform appearance of United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, labor's newest and youngest champion at Washington.

President Gatelee had pulled no punches in his castigation of state law-makers.

He referred to "this year's rotten legislature" and repeated, for emphasis:

"It is a rotten legislature."

477,000 JOBLESS

Selfish political considerations, he said, were to blame for failure of senators and representatives to enact measures providing for unemployment relief.

Asserting that the relief problem is the "most burning question before the people of Massachusetts today," Gatelee said, in part:

CAN'T GET HELP

"We have more than 477,000 unemployed persons ni the Cobmonwealth.

"Not more than 115,000 to 125,000 can be absorbed by the WPA.

"There are many thousands of the jobless who cannot be certified for direct relief because they own small homes or have sons or daughters employed.

"What is to become of these people? Something must be done for them. They're in real distress!"

Senator Lodge was expected to bring new hope to the delegates, in convention principally to solve unemployment problems. He also has received support of A. F. of L. for his simple but effective plan for improved old-age pensions.

CURLEY HIRES HALL

The plan was given by the Senator in detail in the Green Magazine of the Boston Sunday Advertiser on Sunday.

Unless John F. Gatelee, state A. F. of L. president, changes his announced intentions, Governor Hurley will be the only candidate for governor to address the big gathering, scheduled to continue for five days.

"We do not make a policy of allowing candidates for office to make a public forum out of our convention," Gatelee stated.

"Governor Hurley is here solely in his capacity as chief executive of the state."

OTHER SPEAKERS LISTED

The status of other candidates was not revealed although it was known that both former Governor Curley and Lieutenant-Governor Francis E. Kelly wished to address the gathering.

It was pointed out that Curley had hired the same hall from the hours of 8 to 11 p. m.

Labor's Grand Old Man

WORCESTER, Aug. 1—Dean of delegates to the Massachusetts Federation of Labor convention here today was 78-year old Thomas M. Nolan of Somerville.

A typographical union member, he has represented his local at more than 40 annual state conventions.

He has been active in organized labor for half a century.

From the platform of last year's convention, Delegate Nolan delivered what he said was his "swan song." But he was back today, hale as ever, beaming response to hundreds of friendly greetings.

Brooklyn Eagle Sold to Schroth

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (INS)—Control of the corporation publishing the Brooklyn Daily Eagle today passed into the hands of Frank D. Schroth, who recently sold his newspaper in Scranton, Pa.

Announcement of the change was made by M. Preston Goodfellow, former publisher, who said that he had disposed of his stock interests to Schroth and that the latter would now be publisher of the paper.

It Isn't the Heat, It's ---- You Guess What

With humidity still high, oppressive "dog day" weather gripped Boston again today.

Showers were promised, but not much change in temperature, although the forecaster did not expect yesterday's heat maximum of 90 would be reached.

The week-end rush to beaches and lake resorts brought 13 drownings. Four persons lost their lives in auto accidents and one man was killed by a low-flying airplane.

The airplane victim met his death in a freak accident at Lake Maranacook, Me.

The plane swooped down on Walter McCarthy, 42, of Chelsea, Me., as he and his wife were standing on a bathing pier.

McCarthy pushed his wife into the water, saving her life, but the plane hit him, almost decapitating him.

In another unusual accident, Napoleon Bolvin, 43, of Berlin, N. H., was killed at Erroll, N. H., when a truck he was trying to get out of a ditch rolled on him.

Olive Brown, 18, of West Colonial road, East Lynn, was instantly killed when her car crashed at Salem, N. H. The machine got out of control and struck a tree.

John N. Arwarkan, 21, of East Brookline street, East Boston, was drowned at Fall River.

Raymond Foley, 17, of Howe street, Methuen, lost his life in Spickett river, Salem, N. H.

Eugene Alger, 21, of Pleasant street, Attleboro, was drowned at Horseneck beach, Westport.

The high point of excitement at Nantasket beach was the thrilling rescue of Mrs. Mary L. Powers, 50, of Hope street, Worcester. Life Guard Arthur Fidler battled through the surf as breathless crowds watched.

10 HURT ON N. Y. "EL"

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—An empty elevated train rammed into the rear of a three-car train containing 50 passengers early today and injured 10 persons, three so badly that they required hospital treatment.

Little Change In N. E. Trade

Business activity in New England during June remained in the doldrums, showing little change compared to the previous month, the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston reported today in the monthly review.

Carloadings, production of boots and shoes, cotton consumption, department store sales and value of new construction contracts all showed decreases as compared with June a year ago.

Carloadings were more than 20 per cent below last year, and department store sales 6 per cent less.

Production of boots and shoes during June was 8,575,000 pairs, a decrease of 31.1 per cent from the May total, and more than 17 per cent under the total of June, 1937.

Medical Group Flays U. S. 'Meddling'

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP) — The American Medical Association said today of a justice department move to determine if "organized medicine" has violated the anti-trust laws that:

"Apparently it remains to be determined whether or not the federal administration can use the laws and the courts to mould the people of the United States to its belief in every phase of life and living."

The statement, titled "The Department of Justice intervenes in medical care," will be published this week as an editorial in the association's journal. The inquiry was announced last night in Washington by Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general.

"This is the third statement issued to the press by the assistant attorney general as to the intentions of the Department of Justice in this regard," the A. M. A. statement said in part.

In the statement issued to the press, the assistant attorney general apparently offers to the American Medical Association and to the others concerned an opportunity to avoid trial by agreeing to consent decrees which will assure the co-operation of the medical association in the operation of co-operative clinics.

"It becomes apparent that the Department of Justice feels that organized medicine should have nothing to say about methods of payment for medical services; it is even proposed that hospitals shall have nothing to say as to who may or may not practice within their walls."

A Divine Angel Buys 'Heaven'

HIGHLAND, N. Y., Aug. 1 (INS)—Father Divine and his disciples are now across-the-river neighbors of President Roosevelt, not so much because of that Krum Elbow feud but because of a woman's faith in miracles.

The person who put up the cash (about $25,000) to purchase Howland Spencer's run-down estate as a new "heaven" for the Harlem "god" was revealed today as Mary Bird Tree, her "heavenly" name, otherwise the white-haired mother of John West Hunt, one-time chief white "angel" of Divine.

Hunt, grandson and heir of the man who invented the lollipop, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment on a charge of violating the Mann Act in transporting 17-year-old Delight Jewett to California for immoral purposes.

Father Divine promptly tossed him out of his various "heavens," but Mary Bird Tree remained loyal to the little dark man who permits himself to be called the new messiah.

Capt. Bill McCoy, who boasts that he was king of the rum runners in the old days, admitted today that it was Hunt's mother who did the negotiating for Krum Elbow and put up the wherewithal.

Sprawled on the deck of the boathouse, from which you can see the Roosevelt home and guests strolling on the lawns, McCoy said:

"This Mrs. Tree did most of the work. She told me that Father Divine had cured her of cancer and that she had kind of pledged herself to follow him the rest of her life. She wanted to buy the place for him, and, naturally, I wanted to help Mr. Spencer . . ."

McCoy was reminded that Spencer claims that he gave his share of the estate to Divine "so we can see which has the better plan, Father Divine or Roosevelt."

"Well," said the captain gazing over the Hudson at the cliffs that rear into the Roosevelts' front yard, "you've got to remember that Mr. Spencer isn't exactly in love with President Roosevelt. But at the same time, Mr. Spencer has been waiting to sell this place for a long time."

Harlan Trial Jury Still Deadlocked

LONDON, Ky., Aug. 1 (AP)—Hill country jurors continued their deliberation of the Harlan anti-labor conspiracy case today—the first day of its 12th week since the trial began.

They faced the prospect of being held together for a week to reach a verdict on which they reported themselves to be at great variance.

ELSIE ROBINSON, writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every-day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

Solons Insist Debt Be Paid

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN
Special to Boston Evening American

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—Full payment of their World War obligations to the United States, by foreign debtor nations, is the adamant demand of Democratic and Republican members of the United States Senate.

Yet it is perhaps significant that a few of them are willing to have the door of negotiation opened, and that some appear inclined to receive sympathetically any proposal for another readjustment that is based upon a bona fide offer of final settlement in cash.

These views from a further cross-section of Senate opinion are revealed in a poll of members of that body, by the Hearst newspapers, on the direct question of what settlement of the foreign war debts they would favor.

It is apparent that the Senate is generally in the same frame of mind toward war debtors in default that it was in 1934 when Congress passed the Johnson Act, forbidding loans within the jurisdiction of the United States to any foreign government which had defaulted in its debts to the United States.

FIRM ON PACT

It also is indicated that Senators, without regard to party, are still standing on section 3, of the Trade Agreement Act of June 12, 1934, which is still in force, and which bears directly upon the negotiations now in progress for a reopening of the debt question.

This law withholds the authority of the government to cancel or reduce the debts, and would have to be repealed to enable President Roosevelt to proceed to definite conclusions in any readjustment.

The following responses of senators to the question put to them in the poll of the Hearst newspapers discloses a well-nigh unanimous opinion:

Senator Ernest Lundeen, Farmer-Labor, of Minnesota:

"I favor payment in full of all war debts including full payment of interest. Europe is arming at great cost for the impending war. No one denies their ability to pay.

Equally unequivocal is the position taken by Senator Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi ,telegraphed from his home at Poplarville:

"100 CENTS ON DOLLAR"

"I insist foreign debts should be paid 100 cents on the dollar plus interest."

Senator George L. Radcliffe, Democrat, of Maryland:

"I think the debts ought to be settled, and I know of no reason why the basis of settlement reached after careful deliberation some time ago, should be modified.

"If there is any reason for such a modification, I would be glad to go into it very carefully. The agreement involved substantial compromises, and nothing has been brought to my attention to indicate it should be altered."

Senator Allen J. Ellender, Democrat, of Louisiana, wired from his home at Houma, La.:

"Answering your question what settlement of the foreign war debts I would favor, you may quote me as follows—full payment of principal and interest due to date."

From Reno, Nev., Senator Pat McCarran, Democrat, of that state and member of the Senate judiciary committee, replied:

"Answering your wire of today, good faith and justice and equity in keeping with fair dealing among men, and to the end that credit among nations be established for all time in the future foreign war debts owed to the government of the United States should be paid in full, dollar for dollar."

GIBSON'S STAND

Senator Ernest W. Gibson, Republican, of Vermont:

"The foreign debts should be settled immediately on a basis of full payment of cash.

"If necessary, however, to bring immediate settlement, I would advocate a reduction of indebtedness up to 60 per cent, and payment in goods would be acceptable, provided such payments did not have a harmful effect on American industry."

Two Luxury Trains Crash, 38 Injured

TOLEDO, Aug. 1 (AP)—A crash of two luxury trains, the Mercury and the Commodore Vanderbilt, left 38 injured persons in hospitals today and others with minor hurts. Three passengers were in serious condition.

The Mercury, bound from Detroit to Cleveland, grazed an auto on a crossing at Rocky Ridge, 20 miles east of Toledo. The stream-lined flyer backed up but the auto drove on.

Two miles behind roared the Vanderbilt, bound for New York. The Mercury's brakeman ran down the track flagging frantically. The Vanderbilt's engineer saw the block signals set. He jammed on the brakes.

Slippery rails, wet with rain, ground and slithered beneath the 24-car speedster. It slowed down but slid on.

The trains literally bounced, witness said. Glass flew everywhere.

Shirley Kidnap Plot Report Hit as Myth

A report printed in New York today, that G-men had thwarted a Shirley Temple kidnap attempt in Chicago during the present tour, was denied in Boston by all members of the star's entourage.

It was learned locally that federal agents have received no special orders concerning Shirley and are not guarding her here.

She is accompanied by two husky bodyguards employed by her film company.

lowing persons hurt in the past week:

Jerry Sevene, 29, struck on head; Robert Martin, 16, head and arm bruises; Irwin Lampron, 17, skull wound; Arthur Lounsbury, 15, bruised back, and Melville Hammond, 17, lacerated scalp.

"We've been putting up with this for two months now and fear for our lives every time we go out after dark," said Mrs. A. J. Schwartz of Pearl terrace.

"My little daughter Grace is very ill, but twice large rocks have smashed through her window and screen and landed near her bed."

Constitution Day Fete Urged

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (INS)—Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican National Committee today called for a nationwide celebration of "Constitution Day" to rally Americans to fight against "further attacks on our Constitution."

September 17 was suggested as the day for the celebration, which, Hamilton said, has a two-fold purpose:

"Namely to set aside a day for rejoicing over the failure of recent efforts to overthrow constitutional government in this country, and to rally the supporters of constitutional government, without respect to party, against further attacks that are threatened."

Shirley Better, To Tour Boston

for another glimpse of Shirley at the 14th story window, had been waiting three days. They saw her once, last night, at her window.

Tiny Rose Marie Buonfiglio of Elmwood street, Revere, for example, who has taken her parents there twice, marched timidly to the august desk of the Ritz Carlton, determinedly demanded a sheet of writing paper and a pencil, and bent her damp little hand to the task of writing to her heroine above.

"Dear Shirley," she write, "we've been waiting all day. Won't you please wave out the window to us, or send back a note?"

At that time, Shirley was being examined officially by her medical staff and was not waving to anyone.

Doctors at the conference were Dr. Joseph L. Lewis and Dr. Harold L. Higgins of the Massachusetts General Hospital and Dr. Leo J. Madson of Santa Monica, the Temple's personal physician who spent the night in the room next to Shirley. Dr. Madson flew here from Hollywood.

For the first time, also, Mr. and Mrs. Temple made their appearance to talk with reporters. They said that Shirley must still be kept in bed today, where at the moment she was playing with colored crayons.

Mr. Temple explained also that it has not been decided yet whether the trip would be curtailed as a result of the sickness.

"KIDNAPING" MYTH

"As a matter of fact, Shirley has already been up for short intervals," he declared.

He scoffed at a New York report of a kidnap attempt while Shirley was in Chicago.

"We have communicated with no government agenly at all," he said. "Someone is trying to build up exritement and I don't think it's fair to the little tike, after she's been ill."

He added that he had received no crank letters, either, though Boston's youngest set have been wrting Shirley at the rate of 150 letters a day to wish her well.

"We're sorry it was Boston you had to gegt sick in," was the context of most, with the added hope that she would soon be up and about.

INDIANS WAR DANCE

Crowds, travel, heat, excitement, and changes in drinking water were blamed for Shirley's illness shortly after her arrival in Boston.

Today a sort of holiday aspect overcame the crowd in the street outside the hotel. For the second time, a troupe of Indians from the rodeo at Suffolk Downs rode up and put on a small war-dance, but the police were having no truck with that and shooed them off.

This time Shirley did not come to the window, as she had earlier.

There was a good deal of laughter and straining of necks as it became known Shirley was better, and good-natured conversation. Men mopped their faces and children played hop-scotch.

TEMPLE FAN — Little Rose Marie Buonfiglio of Revere, herself a cute trick, waits outside of the Ritz-Carlton for a glimpse of Shirley Temple. She decides to write a letter to her favorite star.

ELSIE ROBINSON, writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every-day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

Carroll Judge Warns

of Paul Dwyer who, Barbara said had "danced divinely."

It took just one hour and 40 minutes to complete one-half of the jury.

Those selected in the session before noon recess were

LEWIS LAMONT, JR., carpenter, of Hiram

EVANS WILSON, 30, farmer, of Bethel

PRESTON J. STANLEY, truck operator, Porter.

HAROLD L. GAMMON, horseshoer, Sumner.

ROBERT VAN OVER, office manager, Dixfield.

CHARLES HERSEY, farmer, Waterford.

It took some time to woman's name [illegible] drawn from the box. The five women are [illegible] Brown Norway Farm [illegible] Brookfield, Annie I. [illegible] Woodstock, Vivian Morton [illegible] and Mary Scribner, Paris.

CARROLL COOL IN COURT

As the jurors were drawn, Carroll eyed the proceedings with [illegible] interest. His face, clean-shaven and [illegible] flushed, was [illegible] and between his heavy brows two deep clefts appeared. But his hands, when he moved them, were steady.

He wore a brown suit with belted [illegible] and brown [illegible]

He [illegible] his eyes more frequently on the photographers' [illegible] their cameras when he was [illegible] the courtroom, but [illegible] them. He went to [illegible] of any kind.

The prospective jurors were first questioned by Judge William H. Fisher, then by Attorney Clyde R. Chapman, chief of defense counsel.

Court convened at five minutes past eleven, instead [illegible] the usual hour of the [illegible] session.

COURT'S WARNING

Judge Fisher, dignified and poised, in opening court warned the spectators and newspapermen briefly.

"We are about to begin a very important trial," he said; "the trial of a man accused of murder. A fair and impartial trial. The jury shall not be influenced by anything except the evidence they hear.

"I want to caution anyone against any demonstration during these proceedings. If there is any such demonstration, the court will take proper means to suppress it and to see it does not happen again."

To the press Judge Fisher said:

"I expect you, of course, to furnish your readers with a full and accurate account of what transpires. The court, however, will not look with favor upon any sensationalism or any attempt to distort the proceedings which may occur here.

"Please do not attempt to anticipate what is going to happen. Give the facts of the case as they come out, and do not tell your readers what is going to come out, because you don't know that."

"NO SPECTACLE"

In connection Judge Fisher reiterated his warning against sensationalism.

"I don't want any spectacle made of this trial," he insisted.

Sixteen of the 81 members of the special venire walked forward when the judge asked those who wished to be excused from jury service because of illness or other material reasons to come to the bench. All of the applicants for excuses were men.

None was excused, although Judge Fisher recorded their names, held until later in the selection of the jury.

This it may be he pointed out, that the jury box will be filled before their names are reached, in which case they automatically will be excused.

If excused, however, they will not be called upon to render a death verdict in the event of a finding of guilty. Life imprisonment is the maximum penalty in Maine.

More than one half of the regular seats in the courtroom were filled by the 81 veniremen. The rest of the [illegible] including a small [illegible] was crowded.

Carroll was brought into the courtroom and seated between two deputies five minutes before court convened. He wore a light tan suit, blue shirt, appeared cheerful and, during the calling of the roll of the talesmen smiled and talked in an undertone to the deputies with him.

All of the veniremen were asked whether they have any acquaintance with Paul N. Dwyer, the 25-year-old youth serving a life sentence in Thomaston Prison for the murder for which Carroll now is on trial.

Attorney Dwyer is the brother of the late Private Carroll, a prisoner of a distinguished World War record, of Dwyer.

ON BOTH SIDES

Love interest and [illegible] suspense, meanwhile centered about the fact that principal witness, to be called both by the state and defense, likely will be pretty Barbara Carroll.

As a state's witness she will be called upon to give testimony that the state hopes to use against her father.

As a defense witness she will be called upon for testimony the effect of which, the defense hopes will be to keep behind the bars of Thomaston Prison—for life—the boy she once loved.

Defense Counsel Edward J. Beauchamp and former Attorney-General Clyde R. Chapman have outlined in brief the course that Carroll's defense will take. Their position is, simply, that Carroll is

Honest Advice To Men Who Are Becoming Bald

• Don't dose your head with cure-all tonics and lotions—there would be no bald heads if that would work.

• Don't spend a lot of money on the costly treatments of pseudo "experts." A sales talk won't save your hair.

• Come in and talk the matter over with me. I can't work miracles for you but if I accept your case for treatment you can be sure of saving your hair.

Governor Hurley and two Republican rivals for the seat he now holds led a stirring last-minute rush at the State House today with the filing of nomination papers for the September primary.

[illegible]

GOVERNOR SEES GAINS

"Chairman Moore informs me that the phenomenal gains throughout the state over two years, as reflected in these papers, points conclusively to my renomination on September 20 and my re-election in November," the Governor said.

OTHERS IN RACE

"I firmly believe there is a growing demand for a change in the administration of state affairs. Thousands who signed my nomination papers are Democrats and voters without any party designation."

Boston After Dark

By JACK CONWAY

Mayor Maurice J. Tobin will raise between $25,000 and $30,000 for the deserving poor of Boston through his charity event at Fenway Park today . . . Judge Emil Fuchs declared there was $23,000 in cash in the box office this morning . . . Red tape often makes it impossible for the welfare department of the city to aid some particularly worthy case . . . The mayor will be able to take care of such emergencies from the fund raised today.

JACK CONWAY

When the Laconia sails for Ireland from Boston tomorrow its distinguished passenger list will include the names of former Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell, manager of the White Fund; Judge Daniel T. O'Connell of the Superior Court, Joseph O'Connell, Jr., member of the sports staff of the Sunday Advedtiser, and Lennahan O'Connell . . . Dan O'Mahony, former heavyweight wrestling champion, and his manager, Jack McGrath, will also be aboard . . . Mrs. O'Mahony, who visited Ireland with Danno two years ago, will be unable to make the trip this summer, as she is awaiting a visit from the stork in her Cambridge home

Records at the Boston office of the Veterans Bureau show an alarming increase in the number of deaths in the ranks of service men . . . Most of the veterans are now past 40 years of age and wounds, injuries and illness contracted during the World War are catching up with them . . . When younger, say the doctors, the veterans could withstand the inroads made on their systems by their gallant war service . . . The government should continue to do everything possible to relieve the suffering of injured and sick war veterans.

Widowed Teachers Ask Old Jobs

School Committeeman Joseph C. White has opened a fight in behalf of former Boston school teachers who have married and then suffered the misfortune of losing their husbands by death . . . There is one outstanding case of a girl left with four small children when her teacher husband died suddenly . . . The widow applied for her former position in the Boston school service but was told she only could get work as a substitute . . . It would be necessary for her to take a competitive examination with hundreds of other applicants . . . The fact she had several years of teaching experience didn't help her

The $500 she was able to get as a substitute wasn't enough to provide the necessities of life for her four children and herself . . . While however such former teachers should be given back their old jobs provided they can get a passing mark in a special examination . . . Certainly the matter of four fatherless children with a splendid background of teaching experience should make an appeal to instruct youngsters in our elementary schools.

There has been a secret checkup at the court house of a married woman to see if they have persons in their homes capable of supporting them . . . The drive is against married women whose husbands are known to be working jobs

Billy Payne, says Dan Carroll, has a better right hand punch than many boxers he has managed . . . Payne has always been my idea of one of the better night club entertainers, but Dan says I would have even greater admiration for Billy if I could see him tossing a few punches . . . I am looking forward to hearing Payne sing at the policemen's ball in Scituate on August 16 . . . He never misses this event

Like a Bob Ripley "Believe It or Not" is Congressman George Holden Tinkham's statement, "No campaign contributions, please" . . . The Congressman has always personally spent every cent required in his campaigns, which have been conducted under the capable supervision of Miss Gertrude Ryan . . .

Big Price Cut On Fine Furs

Distinctive and luxurious furs are now available to Boston and New England women at the lowest price ranges in several years, David Lilienthal, vice-president of I. J. Fox Furriers, announced on the eve of this fur concern's annual August sale.

DAVID LILIENTHAL
Vice-President, I. J. Fox

[illegible]

"Fur skins are considerably lower this year than they have been for the past several years," he stated. "This and the fact that the federal fur tax has been removed brings the price of furs anywhere from 25 to 35 per cent lower than last year

"Of course, no one can make predictions as to what future prices will be, but women purchasing furs at this time of the year are invariably making a good investment."

"Furs this year are more pliable than ever," he explained. "For highlights there is a new cylindrical silhouette leading the procession of modified swaggers, straighter box lines and slimmer fitted versions

"There is a new ease of fit in every coat, a new individualized set of the shoulders, a perfect shaping through the backs and waistlines and warmth in the close-fitting small collars."

Tact Revealed In Handwriting Specimens

By HELEN PAYNE

If you "tactful" you were born with a birthday gift. It is the ability to do or say the right thing at the right time with the proper diction.

Tact is described as spontaneous, unstudied diplomacy. Those folks do not really understand how or why they are tactful but seem possessed with a sixth sense that tells them unerringly what to do, without knowing why they do it.

Intuition is also found in the tactful person's handwriting; you will find "breaks" in the writing, as if the writer paused to allow a "flash" to enter the mind. The words are broken into one or more parts where the pen has been lifted in writing them.

This specimen of [illegible]'s neat and intuitive.

I am sorry that interrupted that thesis

This script also reveals sensitiveness, told from the slant, though many vertical writers are tactful but note that it is "pressed together," accentuating the feeling and has been rapidly written.

Such people will always rise to the occasion where the situations are embarrassing, with fitting words and acts, pouring oil upon troubled waters.

This is an unusually tactful, spontaneous and diplomatic person, owing to the amount of intuition, sensitiveness and delicacy of feeling it discloses.

The Greek form of the "e" reveals culture, refinement and education, this letter is made in different ways however which depicts adaptability and versatility.

opportunities in my possession satisfying results.

A quick, active, mobile mind is resourceful intelligence is also expressed, all of which express natural gracefulness of mind and tactfulness.

This type of person would be exceptionally successful in dealing with the public, adjusting complaints and smoothing over the ruffled feelings of complaining customers.

Patriotic Action Needed

The Editor Says: - The American Bar Association at last week's convention called for improvement in criminal law enforcement as a means of solving the crime problem.

Isn't a major part of the crime problem due to the protection of alien criminals, radicals and Communists in this country by Secretary of Labor Perkins in VIOLATION OF LAW?

The Bar Association is notably SILENT on the fact that the ORDERED DEPORTATION of some 4,000 aliens, radicals and Communists, many of whom are KNOWN CRIMINALS, has been suspended by Secretary Perkins in the face of prevailing statutes.

A glaring example of the bureaucratic suspension of deportation laws is the continued presence in this country of the alien radical, Harry Bridges, who personifies the SABOTAGE OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY to the thinking people of the country.

CONSPICUOUSLY SILENT also has been the Bar Association on legislation pending in Congress during the last four years, first as the Kerr-Coolidge Bill and later as the mislabeled Dies Bill, designed to legalize the presence in this country of deportable aliens, Communists and criminals.

The Hearst newspapers and patriotic organizations of the country have fought desperately to prevent enactment of such dangerous legislation.

In the last Congress, the Dies Bill was kept from passage only in the LAST TWO DAYS OF THE SESSION, largely through presentment of facts to the country by the Hearst newspapers.

WHERE WAS THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION IN THIS PATRIOTIC ENDEAVOR?

How could it more effectively promote its objective of "improvement in criminal law enforcement" than by assisting OTHER PATRIOTIC GROUPS in getting alien radicals, criminals and Communists out of the country?

REGISTRAR GOODWIN, making a determined effort to end drunken driving in Massachusetts, deserves praise.

As statistics show, the man who operates an automobile while under the influence of liquor is a menace not only to himself but to all persons who walk or ride on highways.

Unfortunately, Mr. Goodwin cannot conduct the ENTIRE safety campaign. He must have support from lawmakers.

What this State will have to do to reduce highway death tolls, not by fractions but for genuine safety, is to OUTLAW RECKLESS AND DRUNKEN DRIVING. And when such laws are on the statute books, their enforcement should be COMPELLED by public opinion.

SCHOOL TEACHERS, two thousand in number, are enrolled in the 125 summer courses offered by the various State Colleges, according to Education Commissioner James G. Reardon.

We are proud of these teachers. We think their determination to devote to the acquisition of more learning a vacation that might be spent in relaxation at beaches and mountain resorts sets an excellent example for students.

Clearly the men and women who instruct our children find merit in the good advice of President Conant of Harvard, who has frequently said that the search for knowledge must never end on Graduation Day, but should continue throughout life.

The Political Parade

BY GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, August 1.

JOHN L. LEWIS'S immediate pressure on the New Deal is gratefully experienced as a lover's kiss—is aimed not merely at the defeat of constitutionally-minded members of the House Rules Committee, and the reconstruction of that committee along radical lines, but the elevation to the chairmanship of a strict CIO per center.

This is the Veterans Administrator J. Sabath of Illinois who has been in Congress for 31 years without reaching the top.

The defeat of Chairman John J. O'Connor, of New York city, would advance Sabath to the headship of the Rules Committee, which means that a loyal Democrat with a good ear for listening to the uptown boys would be on the House end of Tommy Corcoran's and Sam Jaffe's telephones.

Sabath has proved his reliability. He has supported the New Deal through thick and thin.

FOURTH in line on the committee is Gene Cox of Georgia, and in succession are Howard Smith of Virginia, both of whom are old fashioned Democrats who helped put Roosevelt in many a New Deal way.

This is the drive of the CIO and its New Deal allies to capture over the Rules Committee. As it is the policy committee of the House with power to throttle or hold back legislation, it is interesting, "transcendentally speaking," in the present campaign that excepting even the attempts to defeat Senators Tydings of Maryland, Smith, of South Carolina, and George of Georgia.

THE REMAKING of the Rules Committee would be regarded as the greatest victory possible in this election. It would bring the Rules Committee into line with Speaker Bankhead and Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn, both of whom have been repeatedly thwarted and defeated by the independence of a majority of the most powerful committee in the House.

Another motive for defeating Representative O'Connor is that in the event of his reelection and the eventual retirement of Speaker Bankhead, he would be in a commanding position to challenge Rayburn for the speakership, the first Tammany man since Amos Cummings to get into such a favorable strategic position.

SMITH'S opponent for the Democratic nomination is young William E. Dodd, Jr., son of the former ambassador to Germany. Accredited until recently, when his family removed to Virginia, to Illinois, he has been tagged as a "carpet-bagger" and as a radical and Communist sympathizer.

Evidently well financed, the youth who is making his first essay in politics by shooting for a House seat, has his features plastered on every telephone pole in the district. He has an expensive sound truck, and the women have rallied to him, even among the swanky hunting set up around Warrenton and Middleburg.

A considerable part of labor is for him. But the CIO alliance hurts Dodd rather than helps. The indications are that the conservative vote will swamp him, as it did Maverick in Texas.

Blue Ribbon Jurors High Class Fellows

By DAMON RUNYON

Copyright 1938 by King Features Syndicate, Inc.; International Copyright and all other rights reserved.

Some of our readers have asked us what is a blue ribbon jury such as will be mustered for the trial of James J. Hines et al in New York City beginning August 15, an event which many big town citizens are viewing as a sort of trial of the country.

Well, it may not be exactly that, as, after all, it involves matters mainly local but it is calculated to be at least island-shaking. In fact, some New Yorkers are inclined to think that the light earthquakes we have been having around here lately are but forerunners of the major reverberations to come over District Attorney Tom Dewey's effort to clap Jimmy Hines in clink.

Everybody in New York refers to James J. Hines as Jimmy. He is not an office holder, but for years he has been one of the big leaders of Tammany and, therefore, a power in the making of office holders.

He is accused by Tom Dewey of being what the boys call "the fix" in connection with the late Dutch Schultz' numbers racket in New York and it is this accusation that a blue ribbon jury is to pass on.

Damon Runyon

A blue ribbon jury is a jury drawn from a selected list of 300 citizens of the community who are supposed to be high class gents in every respect. They are supposed to be persons of not only impeccable character but of rather superior mental status that would enable them to follow a long and intricate trial without losing the scent of the main points at issue.

Of course, there is another idea in there too. It is that the blue ribboners, by reason of the impeccable character aforesaid, are not likely to be amenable to approach with respect to their verdict from any angle. This idea is not emphasized but you can bet all the gravel in Missouri that it was in the back of the legal mind that first thought up the blue ribbon business.

Jurors are drawn from the tax and voting rolls in New York, the same as everywhere else. When you pull jurors out of a hat you are likely to get some whose character may be impeccable enough, but whose mental capacity is apt to bog down in the middle of the first hypothetical question of not more than two thousand words propounded by an attorney.

Before the juror of that type can figure what the lickens they are talking about the trial has gone on three miles farther and he is never able to catch on with it again. Thus he perhaps misses many salient points and when he gets in the jury room to consider his verdict, all he can remember is that the defendant seems to be a nice fellow and that the district attorney was mighty nasty to him and thinking along this line is bad for justice.

A blue ribbon juror must be the kind of fellow who never gets tired of listening to all that guff and who never permits himself the wish that everybody connected with the business would go lie down and die. If he is a confirmed victim of insomnia, all the better. He is not likely to get to sneaking catnaps on justice, as those punk ribbon jurors have been known to do.

What is more, a blue ribbon juror must not be acquainted with a second, or third cousin of the accused nor should his wife have a speaking acquaintance with a lady who buys her hats the same place as the spouse of the DA. To be a real A-No. 1 blue ribboner you should know practically nobody.

One Word Led to Another

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

THE one thing we cannot understand about summer camping is the portage. This is a French word meaning hard work in English. In a portage you put the boat on your head like a hat.

THEN YOU walk around the Niagara Falls until you find another place that fits the boat. When a friend invites you along on a canoe trip it's to help carry the canoe.

THERE ARE a lot of things in camping that always come up later, including cold beans. You've got to find out these things for yourself. We have looked through all the sporting goods catalogs and not one mentions:

1. RED ANTS: Direct from consumer to producer.

2. POISON IVY: A decorative plant that requires very little care. Some people use it in place of parsley on fish.

3. COFFEE POT: A receptacle for collecting grounds and warm water. You lose it with the first meal like the temporary filling in a tooth.

4. FISHING FOR TROUT. Drowning by easy stages.

5. PORTAGE: Hitch-hiking with a boat.

6. CAMP: A place where the tent was before the wind came along.

7. SHOOTING THE RAPIDS: Getting rid of your baggage in the sporting manner.

8. JOLLY TIME: Anything that happened which you couldn't explain.

9. FRYING PAN: A crematory for insects.

10. HAM MOCK: Equivalent to captain's bridge on boat. Once in it all you have to do is to give orders.

Midnight in Manhattan, in the maelstrom of a world gone mad!

This is a scene from RACKET BUSTERS, the Cosmopolitan production released by Warner Bros. and endorsed by the Commercial Crime Commission as a Public Service story and film. MARKETS BOSTON AMERICAN COMMENT
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

A Warning to All Business

(Special to Boston Evening American)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1—Business managements are urged to give wider distribution to the facts embodied in their corporate financial statements, in a current brochure by Merryle Stanley Rukeyser.

Rukeyser, economic commentator for the Hearst newspapers and author of several volumes on business topics, has written a "Standard Reporting Statement" for the guidance of business executives in framing their annual reports to stockholders.

Rukeyser, who has been engaged in a study of business practices for the past two years, declares that the average annual report to stockholders is "a confused mixture of figures and words that gives the public a bad impression of the intelligence, fairness and efficiency with which business is conducted and a poor basis for investment decisions."

Rukeyser contends that the average annual report "does not tell the truth." He says that "Business executives have come to realize that the public is entitled to more information than is now given in annual reports."

While this step, important as it is, would be a great help, Rukeyser contends that a lot more of basic importance could and should be done.

"It can be made a major vehicle," Rukeyser states, "for informing the whole public about the realities of the business world—not in a single advertisement but in a well planned campaign centered around the realities disclosed by bookkeeping.

"The new form for corporate disclosure shows in stark nakedness the fact that corporations are primarily institutions for collecting funds from their customers for redistribution to workers in wages and to government in the form of taxes and to a much less extent to owners as dividends."

Typical of the response to Rukeyser's proposal was a letter from Harvey D. Gibson, president of the Manufacturers Trust Company, who declared it to be "the best method yet devised for coping with the spirit of antagonism that has been fostered so extensively in recent years."

Gibson added:

"Such antagonism could not exist if there were complete understanding of actual facts; nor will the spirit of co-operation, on which the success of both capital and labor must ultimately rest, be possible without such understanding."

R. W. White, treasurer of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation, declared the suggestion was not only interesting, but will "be helpful in crystallizing the trend toward wider publication of data in this form."

AFL Sees Brighter Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (INS)—Brighter business prospects were found in the American Federation of Labor's monthly survey of business conditions and employment.

"Signs of business improvement have multiplied in the past month," the survey said. "Business confidence is strengthening rapidly and prices are turning upward. The increase in unemployment has been checked."

The A. F. of L. credited President Roosevelt's jump-starting recovery program for putting brakes on the 1937-38 depression declining the spectrum would need.

Citing that September 30 is the last day on which the PWA may receive applications, Ickes disclosed that while many cities had made many applications, some sections of the country have not sought federal aid.

In a statement issued at PWA headquarters, Ickes said:

"With more projects being sought by the country as a whole than it seems likely can receive allotments, and a specific mandate from Congress that no application can be received after September 30, it is obvious that communities which are slow to act may lose out.

WAITING ATTITUDE

The stock market adopted a waiting attitude last week as traders became doubtful of its ability to stage a new rise. The averages, however, failed to reflect the little boom that took place in secondary issues. It appeared to be a very obvious attempt to sustain interest while giving the pivotal stocks a chance to rest. The hope being that later on new life could be injected into the laggards.

• • •

This week should provide us with the answer as to how successful such tactics have been. Steels and motors have been the wheelhorses of the entire climb and it almost seems like too much to expect stocks that are up from 20 to more than 100 per cent to keep on going. Steel operations are gaining but the industry is heavily in the red and the motor industry is preparing for its [illegible] August shut-down.

And that it will be the first big steel company to accomplish the feat.

Gossip says . . . That Bethlehem & Weirton has experienced a drop in unfilled tonnage since the first of the year . . . But that a fair amount of business will be forthcoming from the railroads and merchant trade as rails during the next six months

HOURLY PLAY-BY-PLAY IN THE STOCK MARKET

The stock market ambled about [illegible] interesting deal[illegible] today. A last hour strengthening of steels and motors brought many prices back close to an even keel following an early and futile comeback effort after an opening [illegible]

11-12. There was some boardroom speculation as to what General Motors' directors would do regarding the dividend after the close today. The stock eased, but not in alarming fashion as offerings continued light. Trading went on at a snail's pace. Some brokers attributed the dullness to the fact the English holidays last through today. Leaders idled at the lower levels probed in the slow dip. Steels and motors were accorded some support at this point. A creeping comeback began, but volume failed to materialize as extreme losses were reduced for a brief period. At noon there had only been 290,000 shares traded.

R. I. Bedtime Story: Narragansett Reopens

COME KIDDIES HELP YOURSELF to aspirin while papa gives you the latest chapter in the Wacky War 'twix Wilful Walter O'Hara and Bumptious Bob Quinn for control of Rhode Island's betting funds. Cyril, quit snitching Papa's eating tobacco and push the seltzer closer to sister's glass so you don't squirt fizz on her frock.

AUSTEN LAKE

Bottoms up kiddies! Today papa is going to tell about the first reopening of Wilful Walt's old Narragansett horse plant since Bumptious surrounded it with pretty parade soldiers last autumn. And how Wilf has just filed papers as an independent candidate for Bump's job as governor. Not that Wilf expects to be the peepul's cherce, kiddies. But he trusts to whittle down Bump's vote enough to get him lamed in the fall elections

That's the synopsis kiddies. You remember in the previous chapter how Wilful and Bumptious were yowling like a pair of moon pussies about whether Wilf would take his name off Narragansett's letterheads and getting all the judges in Rhode Island out of bed to issue writs and retraints. And just when Bump thought he had a toe-hold on Wilf, Old Wilf would give a legal wriggle and put a headlock on Bump. Yes sir! The plot was pure plagiarism on Paul Bowser's wrestling operas with Pawtucket's comic cops huff-cuffing around Wilf's penthouse and making passes at trespassers' brains, while Bump's beagles tore up the highways with warrants summonses and subpoenas.

Papa Nearly Got It in the Gullet

THEM WERE THE DAYS, KIDDYKINS. And just when Wilful Walt got a court plaster against the Rhode Island race commission and was fixing to open his merry-go-round, Bumptious Bob quick poked through the Statehouse garret, among the old dressmakers' dummies and cast-off corsets and broken bedsprings, and found a musty old law.

Papa took his life in his hands, chickabiddies, to get a comprehensive [illegible] at the Wacky War, and a couple of soldiers, who looked like clean kids of Sunday school age, poked their bread knives against his jiblets and said [illegible] which in plain blunt Saxon meant, "When we say stop, stop." Of course, they might have been kidding, but papa stopped. Saws alive, how papa stopped! Because, my little jelly pies, a good vigorous goose in the gullet with a two-foot stabber was no aid to papa's health.

THAT WAS THE LAST TIME, until the other day when Wilful Walt was dealing himself into the Gubernatorial futurity, that daddykins saw him. There wasn't much difference, because now, as then, old Wilf wore a mischievous smirk like he was stopping the state's clock and precipitating a goshamighty mess. The only thing Wilf likes more than a political crockery smash is two political crockery smashes.

Yes sir! Quite a transformation. Because last August there had been bands of park employes mooching about in smocks and dust caps pretending to sweep, paint and pitter for a grand gala opening. But that was part of the makebelieve, because all the hired hands had to do to convince themselves that there wouldn't be any grand gala opening was to squint through the fence at Bumptious Bob's marching sentries and marching guns.

Wilf and Bump Finish Man-Fashion

TO LOOK AT THE SCENE A YEAR AGO, my diminutive honey pots, you would never have dreamed that Narragansett's stockholders would ever get to milk the public cow again. But Joe Stepheas, of the millionaire catering family, was back baking a carload of hams, muttons and porkpies for the hungry thousands who are coming again today to gobble hasty mouthfuls between showering down their fun money in Mort Mahoney's catch-alls. Mort, and Sam Nuckles, and Bryan Steele and Buddy Wingfield and Billy Ames, who were anathema in Wilful Walt's nostrils, are back at their old occupations of skimming the public funds. And this afternoon thousands of motorists will be jamming the turnpike in four lanes of inching traffic. The canvas army tents which dotted the parking space when Wilful and Bumptious were killing their golden goose for the sake of mutual spite, are folded and gone. The Wacky War has resolved into a bloodless political phase and Wilf and Bump will finish it, man fashion, at the November polls.

Well kiddies, bottoms up!

Wants That $15,000

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1 (AP)—The lure of a proffered $15,000 salary for one season with Pittsburgh's pro football Pirates has caused Byron (Whizzer) White, the Colorado All-American quarterback, to reconsider his decision to forsake football for a Rhodes scholarship.

White is seeking to delay his matriculation at Oxford until the second semester so that he could fit football and the scholarship into the same year.

KEEFE A-1 GOLF PRO

Crippled as they are, the Bees are entitled to better support for breaking even with the Cincinnati Reds and taking three out of four from the St. Louis Cardinals . . . Tony Marsh, Boston's No. 1 baseball fan, is loud in his praise of Danny MacFayden and Lou Fette for the article of ball they pitched against Cincinnati and St. Louis. "They were the best mound performances I've seen this season," he says. Incidentally, Tony hasn't missed a game here this season . . . Wilfred Crossley will make a very popular New England amateur champion. By the way, the New England Professional Golfers' Association and the New England amateur championship titles are now at the Norfolk Golf Club. Bob Crowley is the N.E.P.G.A. champion . . . Since the first of the year, Casey Stengel has been trying to get his Bees to "tag up" on flies to deep left and right fields when they are on first base, with none or one out. But until today Cuccinello pulled it yesterday, none of the Bees ever carried out "Old Case's" instructions . . . Johnny Keefe, professional at the Brookline "Municipal," is one of the best golf instructors in New England. A few years ago, when he came here to watch the National Amateur championship at The Country Club, Bobby Jones spent considerable time in the pro shop fanning with Johnny Keefe, who had straightened out the Atlanta wizard while he was affiliated with the East Lake Golf Club . . . As an "Armistice Day" football attraction, the Boston University-Providence College game would be a "natural." The Terriers will never get anywhere playing Slippery Rock, Upsala, Ithaca and Toledo, except into the "red" . . . In Dave Sullivan, Jr., Norfolk Golf Club has another great golfer in the making. Young Dave "grossed" a 75 during the Norfolk open, despite three putt greens and a six . . . At last, Ellie Fletcher is regarding baseball as a serious business . . . If the Chief of Police at Dayton, O., assigns Jake Powell to his old beat next winter, the Yankee outfielder will do well to carry a billy in each hand. Even then I question if, as the late Hector McInnis often remarked, "he'll winter" . . . GRIMES.

With the Bees coming to town today for a four game series, inclusive of a Wednesday doubleheader, the Bees can well surpass their predecessors by the time they've played so many contests.

With [illegible] the Bees achieved double win over the Cardinals on the Sabbath, boast a home stay record of five wins and three defeats, compiled with a split four game series with the Reds [illegible] four [illegible] St. Louis.

Yesterday Lou Fette [illegible] Dean Pirates, MacFayden's ninth victory and Lou Fette's seventh. The [illegible] ing run his successive winning streak to six straight after having previously dropped [illegible].

With [illegible] the Cardinals [illegible] Johnny Lanning is scheduled to take the opener tomorrow, with Jim Turner and possibly Bobby Reis slated to go in the Wednesday doubleheader.

Turner's unexpected mid season fall off is one of the enigmas of the year.

The big fellow was a warm weather pitcher last year and was expected to blossom forth in similar fashion this summer. But the "Milkman," for some reason, has lost much of his effectiveness, with four straight defeats behind him.

Patterson Sets New Hurdle Mark

LONDON, Aug 1 (AP)—Before a huge bank holiday crowd, ten crack American athletes competed against Europe's best in an international track and field meet today. Seventeen nations were represented in the meet, held in the big white city stadium.

Perrin Walker, lanky sprinter from the New York A. C. outfooted Holland's ace, M. B. Osendarp, by a yard and a half in the 100-yard dash.

Jack Patterson of Rice set up a new British record of 53 seconds flat in winning the 440-yard low hurdles by five yards from P. Joye of France.

Another British record fell in the half-mile run which Sydney Wooderson, world record-holder at the mile, won in 1.50.9. No Americans were entred in this event.

Walker chalked up a double when he beat Osendarp by a yard in the 220-yard dash. He was clocked in 21.7 seconds for this event. He had covered the century earlier in 9.9.

Phil Levy of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, was beaten in the discus throw by the Italian, G. Oberwerger. Oberwerger's heave of 164 feet 11¾ inches beat Levy's best by two feet two inches.

Mel Walker of Toledo gave the American team another victory with a leap of 6 feet, 5 inches in the high jump. R. O'Rafferty of Eire and H. V. Stubbs of England tied for second and third.

Allan Tolmich of Wayne University, Detroit, scored an upset when he defeated D. L. Finlay, England's Olympic star, by inches in the 120-yard hurdles in the fast time of 14.6 seconds. J. L. Thorton of England was third.

Chuck Fenske of Wisconsin romped to an easy victory in the mile in the comparatively slow time of 4 minutes, 19.4 seconds. D. B. Pell of England chased him home, with A. Jansson of Sweden third.

A. G. K. Brown, England's great middle-distance runner, broke the string of American triumphs when he won the 440-yard dash by a yard from W. Fritz of Canada in the new British record time of 47.6. Jim Herbert of the New York Curb Exchange was a step behind Fritz, in third place.

Aussies Complete Rout of Mexico

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1 (INS)—Australia's Davis Cup team made it a five-victory clean sweep over Mexico when Adrian Quist and Leonard Schwartz won their singles matches.

Quist downed Mexico's Eugenio Lapia 6—1, 6—1, 6—4, and Schwartz, substituting for John Bromwich, beat Daniel Hernandez, 6—4, 6—1, 6—2.

Princeton Retains Clay Court Title

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—A Princeton student succeeded a Princeton instructor as Gerard Poresta, captain-elect of the Tiger tennis team, defeated Joe Fishback of New York, 6—3, 6—2, 2—6, 6—1, to win the Eastern clay court tennis championship.

Podesta succeeds John McDiarmid of Kansas City, who teaches at Princeton.

Devine, Leotta to Headline Dilboy Card

Pat Devine, Cambridge heavyweight who has been bordering on the spectacular in the Dilboy Post, V. F. W., outdoor amateur boxing shows, will be seen in the next show of the outfit at Dilboy Field in Somerville under the floodlights Wednesday night.

Devine is streaking and looks like the best heavyweight of the season. He won his class last Wednesday night by two knock outs.

It is likely that he'll collide again with Chuck Prendible of Charlestown Wednesday night, and another slugfest will be in sight should they clash.

Leo Liotta

Boxing will be in five classes Wednesday— 126, 135, 160 and heavyweight classes, open and 147-pound class for novices.

Nick Sullo heads the early entries in the 126's.

Dom DeClantis, Gerry Zullo, Al Freda and Leo Liotta will be on hand for the 135's. The last named, who looked like the best 135-pounder in the section last winter, is coming back after a long vacation enforced by an arm injury.

Entries close with Russo at the Dilboy Post, V. F. W., 8 Curtis street, Somerville.

Ogle, Imig Suspended

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Leonard E. Ogle, trainer, and Ralph Imig, groom of D. A. Wood's Busy K. have been suspended for 60 days by the New York state racing commission.

The penalty was imposed after an investigation revealed Busy K. had been stimulated in the Yonkers Handicap which he won at Empire City, July 23.

The commission announcement said its inquiry had revealed that Ogle had gone to Saratoga the day before the race, returning to Empire City shortly before post time on July 23. Imig was away from the horse for about 20 minutes, for lunch.

All horses owned by Ogle, whose home is in Waurika, Okla., were suspended with him.

Budge Denies Rift With Mako

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (INS)—Don Budge, the world's No. 1 amateur tennis player, arrived here on the Britannic and denied reports of a rift between him and his Davis Cup doubles partner, Gene Mako. They shared the same cabin on the Britannic.

Budge assured reporters that "Gene and I are the best of pals. I don't know where those rumors could have started. Certainly we will continue to team in the doubles, if I have anything to say about it."

At Wimbledon, England, Budge climaxed one of the most successful years in tennis history by repeating for the Wimbledon singles crown.

This gave him his fourth important title since he already had won the U. S. doubles paired with Mako, and the mixed doubles, paired with Alice Marble of San Francisco.

Flanagan Breaks 14-Year-Old Mark

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 1 (INS)—A 14-year-old American swimming record was smashed here when Ralph Flanagan, Miami Biltmore Club star, swam 250 yards free style in 6:14.9.

Flanagan chalked up the new mark while winning the 880-yard free style race of the national A. A. U. championship meet, which he won. The former record was set at Chicago in 1924 by Jack Medica.

Sparky Speaking---

Alice Marble now owns the huge Seabright Tennis Trophy, with which she is pictured. She gained permanent possession of the prize by the 6—2, 6—2 victory

Alice Marble Retires Trophy

SEABRIGHT, N. J., Aug. 1 (INS)—Crushing her opponent with utmost ease, Alice Marble of San Francisco won the Seabright bowl for the third successive year by trouncing Dorothy May Bundy, Santa Monica, Cal., 6—2, 6—2.

By her powerful mastery over Miss Bundy, Miss Marble won permanent possession of the cup, thus becoming the second player in 51 years to retire the huge trophy with three straight victories. The other was Molla Mallory, who accomplished the feat in 1923.

In the men's doubles, Sidney B. Wood, Jr., of New York and Joe Hunt of Los Angeles copped the title by defeating Chester and William Murphy of Chicago, 8—6, 6—2, 8—6.

Miss Marble returned to the courts after a brief rest and teamed with Hal P. Surface, Jr., of Kansas City, to defeat Bobby Riggs of Chicago and Dorothy Andrus of New York, 6—3, 6—2, in the mixed doubles final.

Haigis Supports Johnson in Race

The candidacy of former Judge Kenneth D. Johnson of Milton for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor today was endorsed by John W. Haigis, former state treasurer.

Taunton Tips

By MATTHEW KEANEY

TAUNTON, Aug. 1—Sportsmen's Park, Inc., operating the dog racing meeting at the Taunton dog track, enters upon the last two weeks of its 1938 session tonight with a card of 10 fine races.

BEST BET—STORMY BREEZE—EIGHTH.

FIRST RACE—FUTURITY
FIRST HALF DAILY DOUBLE
JUST CHATTER, ROUNDABOUT, PEPPY GOER

| PP | Dog | WT | Owner | Odds |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 8 | Just Chatter | 57 | Art Wilson | 3-1 |
| 2 | Roundabout | 67 | Cedar F. K. | 4-1 |
| 1 | Peppy Goer | 58½ | J. Highhouse | 5-1 |
| 5 | Pilgrim | 65½ | G. R. Rogers | 5-1 |
| 3 | Motion Boy | 47 | O. & R. Ken. | 6-1 |
| 1 | Manderville | 62 | F. Palermo | 6-1 |
| 4 | T. Sidewinder | 60 | M. T. Dubiel | 8-1 |
| 6 | Quick's Lena | 50 | G. Lippold, Jr. | 8-1 |

The top one drops considerably and should score. ROUNDABOUT, freshened up, can make it close. PEPPY GOER among the possibilities.

SECOND RACE—FUTURITY
LAST HALF DAILY DOUBLE
RAIL CAN, FASTER OFFICER, CLEAN QUICK

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 3 | Rail Can | 59 | Forbe Spencer | 3-1 |
| 2 | Faster Officer | 62 | J. Highhose | 4-1 |
| 6 | Clean Quick | 52 | G. Lippold, Jr. | 5-1 |
| 5 | Kid Evans | 64 | M. T. Dubiel | 6-1 |
| 1 | Mental Test | 71 | O. Dahlberg | 6-1 |
| 7 | Miss Ruth E. | 59 | M. J. Gavan | 6-1 |
| 4 | Red Toddy | 53½ | F. B. Noble | 8-1 |
| 4 | Boob | 59 | Cedar F. K. | 8-1 |

RAIL CAN should score over this hand but the possibility exists that FASTER OFFICER will grab the honor. CLEAN QUICK for what's left.

THIRD RACE—5-16 MILE
PRETTY PATRICIA, DAFFY HARE, MY CHERRY

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Pretty Patricia | 56 | Art Wilson | 2-1 |
| 4 | Daffy Hare | 55 | Forbe Spencer | 4-1 |
| 3 | My Cherry | 54 | Tom Baird | 5-1 |
| 5 | Promise Me | 46½ | C. H. Rogers | 5-1 |
| 6 | Rosanna | 47 | Fred Palermo | 6-1 |
| 2 | Bay Nan | 60½ | L. M. Kirkp'k | 6-1 |
| 7 | Joe Di Mag | 61 | O. Dahlberg | 8-1 |
| 8 | Liquid Fire | 58 | Cedar F. K. | 8-1 |

All PRETTY PATRICIA needs to do here is win it break alertly. This full sister to Miraculous has raced a few muddy at times but on the head end should last. DAFFY HARE and MY CHERRY for the rest.

FOURTH RACE—FUTURITY
COURAGEOUS CARESS, HABERDASHER, MR. MICKEY'S FRIEND

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Courageous C. | 70 | C. A. Rhodes | 3-1 |
| 3 | Haberdasher | 66½ | O. Dahlberg | 4-1 |
| 2 | Mickey's F. | 67 | M. T. Dubiel | 5-1 |
| 4 | Deuce Actor | 68 | Forbe Spencer | 5-1 |
| 5 | Clinton's State | 57 | J. R. Noble | 6-1 |
| 6 | Fatagia | 61 | A. J. Smart | 6-1 |
| 7 | Thady Quil | 61 | W. B. Hall | 8-1 |
| 8 | Vitch | 61½ | W. L. Bryant | 8-1 |

COURAGEOUS CARESS, despite a few poor races, figures best here. HABERDASHER rates closest. DEUCE ACTOR is a money possibility.

FIFTH RACE—5-16 MILE
SHOW DOWN, KNEADER, MORNING MUSIC

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 2 | Snow Down | 54 | F. L. Brunts | 3-1 |
| 4 | Kneader | 56 | M. J. Gavan | 4-1 |
| 6 | Morning Music | 42 | Tom Baird | 5-1 |
| 1 | Sportcure Crony | 56 | Reg Neal, Jr. | 6-1 |
| 1 | Andora | 54 | Homer Bagwell | 6-1 |
| 8 | Government Pay | 67 | L. M. Kirkp'k | 6-1 |
| 7 | Raz | 66½ | Robert Rynd | 8-1 |
| 3 | White Tempest | 57½ | O. Dahlberg | 8-1 |

The top one, an Upsidedown pup, should break fast enough to have a shot head entering the backstretch. KNEADER, recent long shot winner, is the chief threat. MORNING MUSIC should be in the money.

SIXTH RACE—FUTURITY
MORE CLASS, GLITTERING BAND, FLIGHT LEADER

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 2 | More Class | 51 | W. B. Hall | 3-1 |
| 4 | Glittering R. | 66 | Fred Palermo | 4-1 |
| 7 | Flight Leader | 64 | O. R. Wohlauf | 6-1 |
| 6 | White Crow | 50 | O. & R. Ken. | 6-1 |
| 1 | June Breeze | 54 | G. Lippold, Jr. | 6-1 |
| 3 | Magic Key | 68 | L. M. Kirkp'k | 6-1 |
| 8 | Pete Dooley | 63 | L. Smart | 8-1 |
| 5 | June's Laddie | 63 | Homer Bagwell | 8-1 |

With just a little luck at the break, MORE CLASS can score in this number, though GLITTERING BAND, which won its last, could repeat. FLIGHT LEADER, if it breaks, can take it all.

SEVENTH RACE—5-16 MILE
CROSS TRAFFIC, HAWKE'S CHOICE, THELMA II

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 4 | Cross Traffic | 46 | F. L. Brunts | 3-1 |
| 3 | Hawke's Choice | 73 | K. Stephenson | 4-1 |
| 7 | Thelma II | 55 | Jess Williams | 5-1 |
| 1 | Gallant Mick | 75 | M. J. Gavan | 5-1 |
| 5 | Kimo | 56 | J. Highhouse | 6-1 |
| 2 | Noleva | 59 | Forbe Spencer | 6-1 |
| 6 | Meadow Cutlet | 63 | M. C. Sparks | 8-1 |
| 8 | Public Enemy | 72 | Dow Kennel | 8-1 |

CROSS TRAFFIC, if it gets to the rail soon after the break, figures to score here with HAWKE'S CHOICE the most serious threat. THELMA II can be in the money.

EIGHTH RACE—FUTURITY

| | STORMY BREEZE, | WHO'S GLOUNA | WHO. LOUNA |
|---|---|---|---|
| 2 | Stormy Breeze | 73 | G. Lippold, Jr. 5-1 |
| 8 | Who's Who | 65 | Pat Conway 4-1 |
| 7 | Glouna Lenna | 67 | M. J. Gavan 4-1 |
| 1 | Andrew's Hope | 56 | O. & R. Ken. 5-1 |
| 4 | Irish Glen | 54 | Frank Lane 6-1 |
| 3 | Two Toe | 63 | Paul Boone 6-1 |
| 5 | Squarehead | 62 | W. B. Hall 8-1 |
| 6 | Multnomah R. | 65 | O. R. Wohlauf 8-1 |

STORMY BREEZE runs well on the inside. From this box it should score, with WHO'S WHO the main threat. GLOUNA LOUNA could take it all.

NINTH RACE—5-16 MILE
LITTLE GIANT, MIRACULOUS, PERNA

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Little Giant | 75 | J. L. Ayotte | 3-1 |
| 2 | Miraculous | 55 | M. C. Sparks | 4-1 |
| 5 | Perna | 56 | W. L. Bryant | 5-1 |
| 7 | Guiding Band | 68 | F. Palermo | 6-1 |
| 4 | Ashmo | 60 | Paul Boone | 6-1 |
| 6 | Golly's Gin | 64 | Dan Sullivan | 6-1 |
| 3 | Kitty Andrew | 58 | Pat Conway | 8-1 |
| 8 | Justa Go By | 68 | Fred Street | 8-1 |

In its last, LITTLE GIANT was handily to pay a good price. Tonight it should repeat, but at a different price. MIRACULOUS should be close with PERNA in the money.

TENTH RACE—5-16 MILE
JOSEPHINE GLEE, RIP TERROR, BONNIE'S DREAM

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 3 | Josephine G. | 50 | O. Dahlberg | 3-1 |
| 1 | Rip Terror | 53 | M. C. Sparks | 4-1 |
| 4 | Bonnie's Dream | 55 | Pat Conway | 5-1 |
| 2 | Top Traffic | 47 | Frank Lane | 5-1 |
| 7 | Irving Andrew | 61 | M. T. Dubiel | 6-1 |
| 6 | Lucille Larry | 59 | G. Lippold, Jr. | 6-1 |
| 5 | Just Chimia | 55 | W. L. Bryant | 6-1 |
| 8 | Appollo | 58 | O. R. Wohlauf | 8-1 |

JOSEPHINE GLEE can head this bunch round the turn and then hold it to the wire. If Terror, RIP TERROR will take all of it, BONNIE'S DREAM for what is left.

Handley, Young Keeping Pirates In Flag Race

By Associated Press

Around the baseball business they will tell you Lee Handley and Pep Young are the lads keeping the Pirates up there punching . . . And neither of 'em is hitting .280.

Southwest conference scouts report Rice and Texas Christian are the ones to watch in the coming football . . .

What's this about the Senators putting Zeke Bonura on the block as bait for a pitching trade? . . . If you don't believe in miracles, how about the base Gabby Hartnett stole in Philly, which only won the ball game for the Cubs . . .

Gabby Hartnett

It was Gabby's first since 1935 and third in seven years . . . Is Frankie Frisch sounding out here and there about a new job? . . . New tennis mag has a picture of Don Budge talking things over with pro promoter Frank Hunter behind the courts . . . And those rumors popped up all over again . . .

JOLSON MAD

Despite all signs to the contrary, Babe Ruth ('tis said) won't manage the Dodgers in '38—but will be back as coach . . . One of the boys ran into Al Jolson watching the hosses at Saratoga, asked Al how he's getting along with Henry Armstrong, and the mammy man turned right around and walked away.

Big league clubs have their eyes on Dominick DiMaggio, youngest brother of the baseball clan, now with San Francisco . . . Latest report is "good field, no hit."

Tony Canzoneri, who's supposed to be readying a comeback in a gym here, is up at Saratoga watching the gee-gees . . . The Pirates haven't lost an extra inning game since May 19.

Down at Texas Wesleyan they've asked Elliot Roosevelt, the President's son, and W. L. O'Daniel, the new gubernatorial nominee, to sit on the bench as "mascots" for their big games this fal. Incidentally, four of the Wesleyans have been offered pro baseball jobs.

235-POUND TACKLE

Major league scouts might take a look at George Hall, a soph at Denver U., who's pitched four shutouts and dropped only one game with an independent outfit this season . . .

Lou Gehrig

"Bama's biggest boy this fall will be Noah (ark and all) Langdale, a tackle who packs a mere 235 pounds in those moleskins . . .

Oklahoma A. & M. basketballers waited too long to tip Ned Irish off that they'll be red-hot this winter . . . So they won't show in the Garden next season, after all . . .

Santa Anita figures on about $1,000,000 in purses for its '39 race meeting . . . Lou Gehrig drew almost twice as many votes as Jimmy Foxx or Hank Greenberg to win the first-base spot on that cereal company's "All-America popularity" team . . .

Dizzy Dean thinks Brother Daffy will be back in the big time "with our club" before long . . . And Cardinal fans want to know: "What do you mean our club'?"

Bill Cissel, who cost the White Sox 100 G's a few years back—and then flopped, but definitely—may be the next second sacker the Giants will try . . . They've had a scout down at Baltimore looking him over, along with Johnny Wittig, a right-hander.

Flaherty's Dwarfs Lose to Gallaghers

Roy "Snow White" Flaherty's Seven Dwarfs lost the soft-ball championship of Charlestown to the "No-Hit Red" Gallagher's Rope Smokers by the score of 21 to 9 at Lakeview, Dracut.

"Butch" Powers, "Lobster" Crowley and "Sailor" Kirk finished in a triple tie for sculling honors, each winning his heat. The sculling finals will be held at Flaherty's Pond the first week in September.

Alex Jarasitis waded through a field of sixteen starters to capture the horse-shoe title.

GABBY HARTNETT DIZZY DEAN

Dizzy Dean assures Manager Gabby Hartnett that there is nothing wrong with his arm, even after Phils chased him from box Saturday in fifth inning! But Ol' Diz won't fool Ol' Gabby long! Cubs are 7½ games off the pace, and Gabby means to get up there. And Cubs never will while their ace is getting maltreated by tail-enders.

Orleans 6, Falmouth 5 (fourteen innings); Falmouth 7, Orleans 3 (six innings).

GAMES THIS WEEK

Today—Falmouth at Bourne, Orleans at Harwich.
Tuesday—Bourne at Falmouth.
Wednesday—Falmouth at Harwich, Orleans at Bourne.
Thursday—Harwich at Bourne, Falmouth at Orleans.
Friday—Orleans at Falmouth.
Saturday—Harwich at Orleans, Bourne at Falmouth.

BOURNE, Aug. 1—With the Cape Cod League season rapidly nearing the half way mark, Neil Mahoney's Harwich outfit continues to pace the circuit with a record of 14 triumphs against nine defeats.

Falmouth, piloted by Bill Boehner, is in second position with 12 and 11.

Charlie "Buzz" Harvey's scrappy Orleans club is holding down the third spot with 10 wins and 12 losses, while Bourne, co-managed by Bill Land and "Babe" Driskoll, is in the cellar, sporting a record of nine victories and 13 lickings.

The league-leading Harwich machine seems to carry the necessary batting and fielding punch to take the 1938 championship. Moreover, the Mahoney men have a far better hurling department than the other three teams in the loop.

Boehner's Falmouth nine has lots of offensive strength, but the team falls far below the other clubs in fielding.

Orleans and Bourne commenced to click last week, and both might do some tall climbing before another seven days are over.

It seems that most of the younger players in the circuit are members of the Bourne and Orleans teams, and these are the gentlemen who should be best when the hot August sun begins to drench the diamonds.

'PHANTOM' ROCK HURLER FELLS 4 IN SOMERVILLE

Held in Death At Hospital

FOXBORO, Aug. 1—A 22-year-old employe of the state hospital for mental defectives here was arrested and charged with manslaughter today in connection with the case of a patient who died yesterday of a fractured skull.

Fred J. DeCosta of Brockton, attendant at the hospital, was arraigned in Walpole court and held for the September hearing of the grand jury. Later he was released in $1000 bail.

According to local and state police, the 57-year-old patient, Alexander McCook of Worcester, was thought at first to have suffered a bad fall.

Later Roderick B. Dexter, superintendent of the institution, "considered that the circumstances were such that he was justified in calling in the police," according to his own statement.

Chief of Police Joseph P. Dean of Foxboro police and Lieut. Michael Fleming of the state police took over the investigation shortly after McCook had been found lying unconscious in a hallway of the institution.

DeCosta was at first charged with assault and battery but when McCook died the charge was changed.

Chief Dean and Lieut. Fleming said the case was still under investigation and that the circumstances had not been fully cleared up.

Policemen, radio cars and fire trucks were the sniper's latest targets.

The new sortie climaxed the mystery man's two-month bombardment of the neighborhood.

Even while police with searchlights and drawn guns searched, Jerry Sevene of Pearl terrace was struck by a rock that cut a four-inch gash in his scalp. Police cars were hit four times and searchlights of a fire truck were pelted when turned on.

Four squad cars containing special officers combed the area and searched Grace Baptist Church on Cross street, which was also struck many times by the stones. Four dozen windows were broken, water pipes smashed, and the fol-
